

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are words that join phrases and words together.

I'm going to school so I can learn.
I play soccer because it's fun.
I like peas but Isabelle does not.

Prepositions

Prepositions can show time, place or movement between other words in the sentence.

The book is on the desk.
They walked around the mud.
The train went through the tunnel.